- 1989 Social Science Foundation Certificate, the University of the South Pacific, Suva, Fiji

WORK HISTORY

- 2015 - Present Senior Lecturer, Politics and International Affairs Programme, School of Government, Development and International Affairs, University of the South Pacific, Suva, Fiji. Part of Key Performance Indicators is to carry out research, teach, supervise postgraduate research and carry out research and consultancy work in the region.
- 2010 - 2015 Lecturer, Politics and International Affairs Programme, School of Government, Development and International Affairs, University of the South Pacific, Suva, Fiji. Part of Key Performance Indicators is to carry out research and consultancy in the region.
- 2009 Deputy Director, Solomon Islands College of Higher Education (SICHE). In this capacity, I coordinate and oversee the operations of the institution's academic and corporate activities while assisting the Director with policy matters. This also include the monitoring of budget, development of strategic plans and general administration and management of the institution that has more than 320 officers (both academic and support staff).
- 2005 – 2008 PhD Researcher, School of International Development, University of East Anglia, United Kingdom. These three years of research work analysed local level responses to globalisation in Melanesia and the South Pacific. The study produced a model of 'insecure globalisation' through which vulnerabilities, insecurities and instabilities in the Solomon Islands and the wider South Pacific could be viewed and understood.
- 2002- 2005 Head of Planning and Research, Kukum Campus, Solomon Islands College of Higher Education (SICHE), Honiara, Solomon Islands. The office is responsible for overall planning, monitoring, evaluation and liaising with stakeholders (including the Solomon Islands Government and aid donors) The office also oversees research efforts, networking and conference organization with local and international counterpart institutions.

GORDON LEUA NANAU

- 1999 –2002 Principal Research Officer, Solomon Islands College of Higher Education: The office coordinates staff research activities and trains staff members in the areas of applied research. Moreover, staff members are assisted to design, undertake research and publish research findings apart from assisting in the day-to-day administration of the Directorate Office.
- 1997 -1998 Deputy Provincial Secretary, Guadalcanal Provincial Government: The Deputy Provincial Secretary oversees general administrative responsibilities of the provincial government and provides support to the Provincial Secretary. The office also ensures that plans of government are implemented within financial provisions of the approved budgets.
- 1996-1997 Planning Officer, Guadalcanal Provincial Government: Provincial Planning Officer ensures that the office has in place appropriate development and strategic plans. The planning officer assists in preparing, coordinating, monitoring, and evaluating development programs apart from overseeing work of the Physical Planning Division that deals with land matters.
